

Passion Assessment

Peter Lundell, D.Miss.

Passion is the driving desire that compels us to make a difference in a particular way.

Complete the following sentences while remembering

- There are no right or wrong answers.
- Don't be concerned with whether or how you can do it. Answer as if you had no obstacles.

1. Issues or causes I feel strongly about are—

2. What I most like to do for others is—

3. The type of people I like (or would like) to help most are—

4. If I could make a difference in one area of ministry it would be—

5. Given who I am as a person, if I could do anything and not fail I would—

6. At the end of my life I'd love to look back and know I had—

7. If my name were mentioned to a group of friends, they might say my interests or passions are—

8. List five to seven positive experiences you've had in your life, what you did and why it was meaningful—

Based on my answers to the above questions, I think I have a passion for:

- Share your answers with the group.
(Remember this is just the beginning of identifying what your passion may be.)

I think my spiritual gifts are:

When you put your passions—or overall sense of life calling—together with your spiritual gifts, what kind of ministry do you see?
